Drought management

You must provide a description of the practices your farm business undertakes to manage through drought conditions.

List the steps you have undertaken and where possible, provide evidence confirming completion of these activities.

Activities may include financial management, grazing land management, livestock management or activities to manage water supply and crops.

Large empty box with horizontal dotted lines for writing.

Drought recovery

You must provide a description of the practices your farm business is currently undertaking, or is likely to undertake, to recover from drought when conditions improve. If you plan on carrying out planting and restocking activities, you will need to provide supporting evidence that seasonal conditions allow planting and/or restocking activities to commence.

Large empty box with horizontal dotted lines for writing.

Attach any documents that support these statements.

Tick if documents are attached

Financial need

You must provide evidence that your farm business is in financial need of a loan.

To do this, please describe the event(s), within the last five (5) years, that caused a significant financial impact to your farm business. We expect this will include drought conditions, but other causes of need include frost, cyclones and other natural disasters, pest/disease outbreaks, market closures.

Please also outline cumulative impacts.

Large empty box with horizontal dotted lines for writing.

Attach any documents that support this statement.

Eligibility continued...

Significant financial impact

You must provide evidence of the significant financial impact of the event(s) stated above on your farm business.

To do this, please describe:

- what the financial impact of the event(s) has been (or will be) on your farm business
- how long your farm business has been (or will be) financially impacted (minimum two (2) years)
- when the financial impact started (or will start), and
- how long the financial impact will last.

A large rectangular box with a solid top and bottom border and a dotted left and right border, intended for providing a detailed description of the financial impact.

Collection notice

If you are:

- an applicant
- a director, secretary or shareholder of an applicant
- where the applicant is a partnership, a partner
- where the applicant is a trust, the trustee of that trust
- other associated individual of an applicant or
- a guarantor

then RIC collects:

- the personal information that you provide in this application form, including your full name, date of birth, address, phone number, email address, occupation and employer, residency status, financial information including regarding any assets and property owned
- credit reporting information from Equifax
www.equifax.com.au/personal/

Why does RIC collect your personal information?

We use the personal information collected from you and the credit reporting information collected from Equifax to inform our assessment of an applicant's suitability to receive a loan and of a guarantor's suitability to act as guarantor. RIC's assessment of applications is conducted in accordance with the Regional Investment Corporation Act 2018 and instruments made under this Act, such as Rules. Where the applicant is approved for a loan, RIC will continue using your personal information to manage and administer the loan.

If we did not collect your personal information, we would be unable to assess eligibility and suitability to obtain a RIC loan or to act as a guarantor, and we would be unable to approve the application for a loan.

If you opt in to receiving our newsletter, we may use your personal information to send you the newsletter.

Disclosure of your personal information

We only disclose personal information where we believe it is necessary to assist us to fulfill our functions. We usually disclose your personal information to:

- our agents, contractors, external service providers, external advisors and insurers
- other organisations involved in providing and managing your finance, such as our banking institution
- other account holders or operators, guarantors or borrowers linked to your loan
- your current and former employer, your referees and identity verification services
- your bank/financier, solicitor, accountant, Rural Financial Counsellor and any advisor/consultants of yours
- relevant Ministers and other Government entities such as the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources, the Department of Finance and the Department of Infrastructure and Water Resources.

We may also disclose your personal information where:

- we are required or authorised to do so by law
- you have expressly consented to the disclosure, or the consent may be reasonably conferred from the circumstances
- we are otherwise permitted to disclose the information under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Whether you are an applicant or a guarantor, we may disclose the following personal information to Equifax to ensure that credit reports are obtained for the correct person:

- full name
- date of birth
- address
- occupation
- employer
- driver licence number and State.

We do not usually disclose your information to organisations outside Australia and will only do so if you agree, or if we are authorised or required by law.

Further information

Our Privacy Policy, available at www.ric.gov.au/about/our-commitment/privacy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of your personal information and information about how you can complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how complaints are dealt with.

You can contact us by:

- telephone on 1800 875 675
- email at info@ric.gov.au or
- using the online form on our website
www.ric.gov.au/about/contact-us

PART O – Declaration and execution

WARNING: It is an offence under Part 12 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) to provide false or misleading information, provide a false or misleading document or forge a document for use in an applicant identification procedure.

You should only sign this declaration if this loan is wholly or predominantly for business purposes, or investment purposes other than investment in residential property. By signing this declaration you may lose your protection under the National Credit Code.

I/We declare that the credit to be provided to me/us by the credit provider is wholly or predominantly for:

- business purposes, or
- investment purposes other than investment in residential property, and
- the information provided in this application is true and complete.

I/We understand that:

- the RIC will use the information provided in this application to determine whether or not to establish a credit facility.
- this application does not constitute an offer of credit or approval of this application by the RIC.
- unless otherwise indicated in this application any one account signatory (where there is more than one) can operate the account without the others' permission and that I am/we are responsible for transactions conducted accordingly.

I/We confirm that:

- I/we have read and agree to the Privacy information in this application, and on the RIC website.
- I/we have read and acknowledge the eligibility criteria for this credit facility and reasonably believe that I/we are eligible for this credit facility.
- all charges, rates and taxes have been correctly calculated and are paid up to date and there are no outstanding government charges or taxation liabilities other than those disclosed in this application.

I/We consent to:

- RIC disclosing my/our personal information to Equifax for the purpose of obtaining credit reporting information (for example, credit reports)
- RIC collecting credit reporting information from Equifax for the purpose of assessing this application.

What is an Identifier Declaration?

Note: This information is only relevant for Category 5.

An Identifier Declaration is a statutory declaration made by a person who is:

- at least 18 years old
- an individual who has known the borrower for at least 12 months (and is not a relative of the borrower), and
- not a party to the mortgage.

The Identifier Declaration must include the following information:

- the name, address, occupation and date of birth of the person making the declaration (the declarant)
- the nature of the relationship between the declarant and the borrower
- a statement that the declarant is not a relative of the borrower
- a statement that the declarant is not a party to the mortgage
- the length of time the declarant has known the borrower
- that to the declarant's knowledge, information and belief the borrower is who they purport to be, and
- if applicable (for Option 2 of category 5), that the declarant is an Australian Legal Practitioner, a Bank Manager, Community Leader, Court Officer, Doctor, Land Council Officeholder, Licenced Conveyancer, Local Government Officeholder, Nurse, Public Servant or Police Officer.

Note: The declarant must attend the face-to-face in-person interview and the RIC (or its agent) must complete verification of identity on the declarant in accordance with the relevant rules.
