Who can apply?

There are two (2) kinds of AgriStarter loans – succession loans and first farmer loans. Succession loans are available to help applicants undertake succession activities (being the succession planning process or activities identified in that process). First farmer loans are available to help eligible loan applicants to:

- purchase a farm business or a controlling interest in a farm business, or
- establish or develop a farm business in which the applicant has or will have the sole or a controlling interest (including by funding the purchase of land, infrastructure, equipment or stock, and covering other farm costs such as operating expenses), or
- develop an existing farm business that involves share farming or farm leasing arrangements, in which the applicant has or will have the sole or majority interest (including by funding the purchase of infrastructure, equipment or stock, and covering other farm costs such as operating expenses).

Are you eligible to apply?

An applicant must meet the eligibility criteria outlined in the AgriStarter Loan Guidelines before they can obtain an AgriStarter Loan. In all cases, the recipient of the loan must:

- have already obtained, or demonstrate that they will obtain within a reasonable period, a loan on commercial terms (see guidelines section 5.1.1)
- be in financial need of a concessional loan
- have the capacity to repay the loan, and
- meet all farm business eligibility criteria (see guidelines sections 3.2, 3.3 and 3.4).

First Farmer

To be eligible for a first farmer loan, in addition to eligibility criteria outlined above, applicants must:

- not have previously held the sole or a majority interest in a farm business (other than the recently acquired or established business in respect of which the loan is sought)
- have at least three (3) years of relevant on-farm or equivalent experience, and
- intend to have the farm business as their principal business pursuit.

Applicants will also need to show that the loan is for one or more of the following purposes:

- purchasing the sole or a controlling interest in a farm business
- establishing a farm business in which the first farmer will hold the sole or a controlling interest
- developing a farm business that the first farmer has recently acquired or will acquire, being a farm business in which the first farmer holds or will hold the sole or a controlling interest
- developing a farm business that the first farmer has recently established or will establish, being a farm business in which the first farmer holds or will hold the sole or a controlling interest.

Please refer to Section 3.1.1 First Farmer in the AgriStarter Loan Guidelines for details.

First Farmer - Share Farming / Farm Leasing Business

To be eligible as a first farmer with a farm business that involves share farming or farm leasing (or both), in addition to the eligibility criteria above, applicants must:

- hold the sole or a majority interest in a share farming or farm leasing business
- have not previously held the sole or a majority interest in a farm business and have also not previously held the sole or a majority interest in land on which primary production aspects of a farm business were being undertaken
- provide a copy of the formal written share farming or farm leasing agreement signed by both parties, detailing the start and end dates of the agreement and land being leased or share farmed.

Applicants will also need to show that the loan is for one or more of the following purposes:

- purchasing the sole or controlling interest in a farm business, including a share or farm leasing business
- develop a share farming or farm leasing business that they have recently established or acquired (or will establish or acquire)
- developing a share farming or farm leasing business, even if this results in the farm business no longer involving share farming or farm leasing.

Please refer to Section 3.1.1 First Farmer in the AgriStarter Loan Guidelines for details.

Successor

To be eligible for a succession loan, in addition to eligibility criteria outlined in section 3.1, applicants must demonstrate that:

- the farm business is undertaking or has undertaken succession planning, and
- the loan is to support succession arrangements (that is, the succession planning process and the activities identified in the succession planning process).

There are also further requirements, which differ depending on whether you are a farm business successor, farm asset successor or farm business.

Please refer to Section 3.1.2 Succession loans in the AgriStarter Loan Guidelines for details.

What is an Identifier Declaration?

Note: This information is only relevant for Category 5.

An Identifier Declaration is a statutory declaration made by a person who is:

- at least 18 years old
- an individual who has known the borrower for at least 12 months (and is not a relative of the borrower), and
- not a party to the mortgage.

The Identifier Declaration must include the following information:

- the name, address, occupation and date of birth of the person making the declaration (the declarant)
- the nature of the relationship between the declarant and the borrower
- a statement that the declarant is not a relative of the borrower
- a statement that the declarant is not a party to the mortgage
- the length of time the declarant has known the borrower
- that to the declarant's knowledge, information and belief the borrower is who they purport to be, and
- if applicable (for Option 2 of category 5), that the declarant is an Australian Legal Practitioner, a Bank Manager, Community Leader, Court Officer, Doctor, Land Council Officeholder, Licenced Conveyancer, Local Government Officeholder, Nurse, Public Servant or Police Officer.

Note: The declarant must attend the face-to-face in-person interview and RIC (or its agent) must complete verification of identity on the declarant in accordance with the relevant rules.
